This workshop is a part of activities of the Centre of Excellence in Science and Mathematics Education (CESME) set up at HBCSE under the Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching (PMMMNMTT) scheme under the ambit of the Ministry of Education, Govt. of India.

The workshop engaged the teacher participants with critical thinking and reflective discussions on content and pedagogy about designing meaningful problems for assessment of concepts related to theoretical and experimental areas in chemistry. The teacher participants also framed questions in their area of expertise and presented the same during the workshop.
